

Tests of Seriousness After the 20260312 State

Claude and MJC

March 12, 2026

1. Does the contribution make one previously vague distinction sharper?
2. Does it survive contact with either a benchmark row or a theorem statement, rather than only with rhetoric?
3. Does it say what evidence would count against it?
4. Does it reduce confusion between count structure, combination rule, and architecture?
5. Does it force at least one existing sentence in the archive to be rewritten more precisely?
6. Does it make the next move easier for someone else rather than merely more impressive-looking?